Company compensation agreements with the members of the Executive Board or employees in the event of a take-over bid: The service contracts entered into with Executive Board members Hartmut Müller, Gérard Cordonnier and Manfred Pretscher contain or contained a change of control clause, under which each member had a special right of termination exercisable within three months of a change of control. If the change-of control option is exercised the termination party partly may claim, a termination benefit of 150% of the termination benefit cap agreed upon in the service contract equaling two full annual remuneration amounts. This benefit is not included in the service contract entered into with the newly appointed member of the Executive Board, Mr. Öhlenschläger. In addition, there are change of-control compensation agreements with individual members of the Company's senior management, exercise of which is based on resignations from members of the Executive Board.

Material Company agreements contingent upon a change of control as a result of a takeover bid:

GRAMMER AG and two other domestic Group companies are parties to a syndicated loan agreement, under which each creditor has the right to demand premature repayment in the event of a change of control. For the purposes of these contracts, a change of control is deemed to arise as soon as one or several persons acting jointly acquire at least 30% of the voting capital of GRAMMER AG or the other borrowers. As described above, the agreements governing the bonded loans include change-of-control clauses up to the full amount. If these termination rights are exercised jointly in particular, the funding required by the GRAMMER Group for its ongoing business operations may be no more secure, meaning that alternative sources of funding would be required.
